

Statement of Principle

- HWC is an outreach ministry of Jesus Christ through His Church. Consequently, HWC, embodied in its volunteers and staff, is committed to presenting the gospel of our Lord as found in the Bible, both in word and deed, to our clients. Those who work as employees and volunteers are presumed to know Christ as their Savior.
- HWC is committed to providing its clients with accurate and complete information about pregnancy, life skills, parenting, and health and relationship education. This includes accurate and complete information about prenatal development and abortion.
- HWC is committed to encouraging women to carry their babies to term by providing emotional and resource referral support.
- HWC does not refer single women for contraceptives. Health issues relevant to birth control will be discussed but not promoted as a solution. Abstinence will be the only solution advocated.
- HWC is committed to providing its clients with accurate and complete information for regarding relationships, material assistance, medical, legal and housing referrals
- HWC is committed to providing its clients Biblical counseling by volunteers who are specifically trained in the biblical application and resolution of life issues.
- HWC never discriminates in providing services because of race, creed, color, natural origin, age or marital status of its clients.
- HWC never advises, provides, or refers for abortion or abortifacient.
- HWC offers assistance free of charge at all times.
- HWC is committed to creating awareness and increasing cooperation within the local community for the needs of vulnerable women and adolescent women.

HWC is not biased toward adoption when compared to the alternative of parenting. We are independent of any adoption agency. We do not charge for any services or assistance we made provide in an adoption.
